UMS 'n JIP is one of the most innovative and accomplished contemporary music ensembles of our times. Founded in 2007 in Switzerland by Ulrike Mayer-Spohn [UMS] and Javier Hagen [JIP], it is yet one of the most active ensembles worldwide performing >100 concerts annually and totalling >150 commissioned works. UMS 'n JIP explore new musical and scenic settings for voice, recorders and electronics ranging from live to digital performance as well as European to non-European music. Since their studies (composing, audio design & musical performance) in Holland, Germany, Italy and Switzerland, UMS and JIP have been invited to prestigious contemporary music festivals all around the world.
